ABOUT THE PROGRAM

This program will explain the technical and legal fundamentals of blockchain technology and smart contracts for corporate and commercial lawyers as well as for litigators. Panelists will define key terminology, describe use cases for blockchain in M&A, corporate governance and commercial law, and introduce other uses such as smart cities, connected vehicles and equipment rentals. Learn what to expect when litigating blockchain and smart contract disputes, and hear legal updates on issues of security, privacy, jurisdiction and liability.
