ABOUT THE PROGRAM

To start off National Celebration of Pro Bono in October of this year, this Movie Night program will feature the television film Gideon's Trumpet. The film, starring the great actor Henry Fonda as James Earl Gideon, is a compelling portrayal of the events leading up to the Supreme Court's historic 1963 decision in Gideon v. Wainwright, as well as the events following the Supreme Court's decision, including Gideon's re-trial. The film is based on the book by the great legal writer Anthony Lewis, who for decades covered the Supreme Court and other legal issues for the New York Times. Gideon v. Wainwright established the constitutional right to free court-appointed legal counsel for the indigent in most criminal cases. In addition to exploring the factual and legal issues posed by Gideon, the discussion will explore the film as an early, and still compelling example, of first-rate television and film portrayals of complex legal issues, including the challenges to television and film writers in creating such portrayals within the time and dramatic constraints of television and film.
