ABOUT THE PROGRAM

With changes in medical standards of care regarding pain management, there has been a significant increase in the amount of opiate prescriptions and, consequently, a remarkable increase in opiate-related overdoses and death. Families are beginning to hold doctors legally accountable for the opiate-related deaths of their loved ones. What developments should lawyers be aware of and what are the potential legal impacts of these developments?

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- Keynote Address by Attorney General Matt Denn
- Panel Discussion on Recent Developments and Current Topics in Opioid Policy

Sponsored by the Delaware State Bar Association
